

JANUARY 2017

NATIONAL SCHOOL OF BASEBALL & SOFTBALL, LLP NEWSLETTER

Monthly Update

January is here and training is in full swing. Players are starting earlier and earlier in order to get ahead of the intense competition. Regardless of the what level you play at: In-House, In-House & Part Time Travel, Full Time Travel, High School or College; the thought process these days is, "If you are not training, someone else is."

This month we started a pitching clinic at Swing Baseball & Softball Training Center. We will be headed into our third week and the feedback has been awesome! The kids are having a blast and their improvements are already showing!

Aidan Kress

Student of the Month

Aidan, one of our newer students, has made incredible strides reaching heights he never knew he could reach. He wasn't sure he ever threw over 60 mph before, but he hit 67 mph and 72 mph on a run and throw. My guess is he is pushing 70 mph by now. His work ethic, attitude and coachability are an instructor's dream. I am so proud of this young man. There is still an incredible amount of untapped potential. By the time the season starts, his coaches will have no choice but to pitch him on a regular basis. Way to go, Aidan!!

Quick Tip of the Month by Coach Pete

Coach Pete's "Tip of the Month"

Improvement and changes in mechanics only come with perfect repetitions. You cannot rely on team practices to get those reps in. The drills are your "homework". Do them religiously. Take responsibility for your growth as a player. This is where every play "Own It".
